

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What are the things I need to do as part of my exit process?

A. You have to submit any Investment related bills to HR 2 weeks before your last day in office. This is important to calculate your final settlement.

2. What do I do on my last day? What time should I be in office on my last working day?

A. You should handover the work related equipment and initiate the exit formalities. The exit formalities will be taken care online. You should come in the general shift (8.00am – 5.00am) irrespective of your shift, to ensure that there is no hindrance in getting exit formalities completed.

3. When can I expect my final settlement?

A. Final settlement will be processed within a maximum of 45 days from your last date. If the last working date is within 15th of the month, then the salary of previous month will be kept on hold and will be paid along with your full and final settlement.

4. Do I get my leave encashed?

A. Yes. The final settlement will include any outstanding earned leave accruals. Please contact the finance team if you have any queries regarding your pay. Please ensure to get all the pending leaves approved in e-Smart tool before you leave.

Note – We encourage employees not to take leaves during notice period. Else the notice period might be postponed for the number of days you were on leave. In case of sick leave, you should produce the medical certificate.

5. When do I get my relieving letter?

A. Relieving letter will be issued on your last working day subject to your confirmation on F&F. For resignation acceptance letter, you can use the email sent by HR acknowledging your resignation.

6. How do I withdraw Provident Fund?

A. Withdrawal forms will be given to you on your last day. You will have to bring a cancelled cheque and submit the filled form to HR. HR will only get the authorized signatories signature and return the form to you, so you can submit it to the PF department. You can submit the form to the department after 60 days from your last date.

7. How do I transfer Provident Fund?

A. Transfer can be initiated from your next employer after 60 days from your last date.

8. Do I get my Gratuity at the time of leaving?

A. Gratuity will be paid if you have completed 5 years in the company.

9. How do i claim shift allowance?

A. To claim shift allowance, you should submit the time sheet to HR 1 week prior to your last working day, so this can be included in your final settlement. If you fail to submit then the same shall not be included.

10. I have opted for food coupon, would I be receiving the food coupon?

A. Food coupon will not be issued on the last month of your notice period. However, this will be paid along with your final settlement.

11. Will there be any exit interview conducted?

A. Yes. HR will send an invite on your exit interview, which will be organized on your last working day.

12. Recovery of relocation amount and any other Sign-on bonus and Special one-time bonus

A. Relocation - In cases wherein the employee resigns within a period of one year from the date of joining, the entire amount of Relocation expenses reimbursed/paid to him/ her will be recovered as part of the full and final settlement.

Sign-on bonus and Special one-time bonus – If employee resigns from Eurofins during the first 12 months of the employment, then he/she shall reimburse the full bonus amount to the company.

13. When can I submit the bills related to Flexi Benefit Plan?

A. Bills related FBP components like, Business Attire, Furniture & Electronics, Car Running and Maintenance and Education continuity should be submitted 2 weeks prior to your final day.

For any further queries that you may have, please contact your HR.