

Medical Allowance:

1. Amount of medical Allowance claims per financial year is limited to a maximum of Rs.15000.
2. Medical Allowance can be claimed for medical treatment and expenses incurred for self, spouse, children and dependent parents, brothers and sisters.
3. All types of medical expenses can be claimed including, medical tests, X-rays, CT scan, child birth, except hospitalization charges. For Lens purchased, receipt should be attached with the practioners' certificate.
4. Medical Allowance will be proportionate to the number of months spent in the financial year for employees who have joined or separated during the year.
5. Photocopies of Medical Bills will not be considered for Tax exemption.
6. Purchase of Cosmetics/Sanitary items will not be considered for exemption.
7. Amount spent for Dental treatments are allowed.
8. Amount spent on Purchase of Spectacles and eye treatments are allowed. However amount spent on purchase of Contact Lens/Goggles are not allowed.
9. Medical allowance has already been paid month on month and hence need to provide bills for the whole INR 15,000/- Exemption purpose The bills not provided for the difference amount, will be treated as taxable.

Leave Travel Allowance:

1. For Air Travel – Original Air tickets along with Boarding Pass has to be submitted. In case of Internet booking – the relevant e-ticket printouts and original boarding pass (mandatory) to be Submitted with the claims. Eligibility would be limited to Economy Airfare of Indian Airline tickets or the Proofs submitted.
2. For Travel by Train / Bus – Original Train / Bus Tickets to be submitted. Eligibility would be limited to A/C First class train or the Proofs submitted, when the places of destination are connected by train and if they are not connected by train then eligibility would be restricted to first class deluxe fair recognized Public or Private transport system. (Online Train tickets purchased also would be accepted. However Leave details will be cross verified)
3. For Travel by Cab – Original Bill in the name of employee mentioning the Places of Travel, Distance covered in Kilometers (Trip Sheet) etc. Toll gate receipts are also required to be submitted. If the same are not available please submit the lodging bills to substantiate the proof of travel. The amount of exemption however will be restricted to First A.C. fare by train by the shortest route.

4. Two journeys in a block of 4 calendar years (Jan-Dec) are exempt. Current block is calendar year 2014 to 2017 .
5. Tax benefit for actual fare only. Hotel, food, sightseeing, local conveyance, etc. not allowed and Travel within country only eligible. Travel to foreign country not eligible for tax benefit.
6. Exemption is available for farthest place by shortest route when circular journey is performed. E.g. Travel from Bangalore to Mumbai and Mumbai to Delhi. The travel from Bangalore to Delhi would be considered.
7. Exemption is available only if Employee has accompanied with his family for the trip and has taken leave from the Company.
8. Exemption is available only for Self, Spouse, Children and Parents. Please note that Exemption is not available for In-Laws of the employee.
9. Travel by Own vehicle is not eligible for exemption.
10. If the employees' relatives including wife and other family members travel, without employee accompanying them, no LTA can be claimed.